I-797A | NOTICE OF ACTION

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
U.S. CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Receipt Number 	Case Type I129 - PETITION FOR A NONIMMIGRANT WORKER
Received Date 01/10/2020	Priority Date
Notice Date 01/21/2020	Page 1 of 2
 LUO AND ASSOCIATES LAW GROUP 450 7TH AVE STE 2400 NEW YORK NY 10123
Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: O1B Valid from 01/21/2020 to 01/05/2023

The above petition and accompanying request for a change of status have been approved. The status of the named beneficiary(ies) in this classification is valid as indicated on the I-94 attached below. The beneficiary(ies) can work for the petitioner pursuant to this approval notice, but only as detailed in the petition and during the petition validity period indicated above, unless otherwise authorized by law. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker.

The dates in the I-94 attached below might not be for the same dates as the petition validity dates above because the I-94 below may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before and up to 10 days after the petition validity period for the following classifications: CW-1, E-1, E-2, E-3, H-1B, H-2B, H-3, L-1A, L-1B, L-1C, L-2, P-1, P-2, P-3, P-5, P-6, P-7, and P-8. I-94 for O-1A nonimmigrant may contain a grace period of up to 0 days before and 3 days after the petition validity period. However, the beneficiary(ies) may not work during such grace periods, unless otherwise authorized by law. The decision to grant a grace period and the length of the granted grace period is discretionary, final, and cannot be appealed or motioned. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the beneficiary(ies). The beneficiary(ies) should keep the right part of the I-94 or mail it with his/her next Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for this record. A visa grant or a change of status while leaves the U.S. and is not visa-exempt must normally obtain a visa in the new classification before returning. The left part can be used when applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry based on this approval notice at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we not calculate a port of entry or pre-flight inspection officer to use this approval notice.

The arrival of the petition does not guarantee that the beneficiary(ies) will be found to be eligible for a visa for admission to the United States (if given a visa), a change of address, or a subsequent extension of stay, change of status, or any other benefit.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT/PETITIONER

If this is an approval notice for Form I-102, Application For Initial/Replacement I-94, save the upper portion of this I-797A, Notice of Action, for your records. If this is an approval notice for Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, the petitioner should keep the upper part of this I-797A.

Please note that simply filing an application, petition or request, or having an approved petition does not give the person it was filed for (also known as the beneficiary) permission to legally enter the United States. It also does not grant any legal immigration status.

Include a copy of this notice if you:

- Write to USCIS or a U.S. Consulate about your case or
- File another application or petition with USCIS based on this decision.

USCIS will notify you separately about any other application or petition you have filed.

Inquiries

If you have questions about your application or petition, you may:

- Go to <https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus> to check your case status online.
- Call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5280.
- Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD) 1-800-767-1833.
- Send us a letter and include a copy of this notice.

If you filed Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service, and you have any questions about the decision or status of your application or petition, please review the instructions for contacting the Premium Processing Unit prior to the receipt of notice we mailed you.

APPROVAL OF NONIMMIGRANT PETITION

If we approved a nonimmigrant petition, it means that the beneficiary is eligible for the requested nonimmigrant classification. If this notice says that we are notifying a U.S. Consulate about the approval for the purpose of issuing a visa, contact the appropriate U.S. Consulate directly if you or the beneficiary has questions about the process. For more information about USCIS processing after a petition is approved, see the instructions on the form you filed.

FORM I-94 ATTACHMENT

You can find your replacement Form I-94 (Arrival/Departure Record) in the lower portion on the front side of this notice. Keep the right half of your replacement Form I-94 with your passport, along with a copy of your original I-94 if you have it. Keep the left half of your replacement Form I-94 in a safe place with your personal records. Submit a copy of your replacement Form I-94 with any future application or petition.

When you leave the United States, you must turn in the right half of your I-94 (kept in your passport) to the officials at the airport, border or seaport. If you do not do so, it may delay your entry to the United States in the future. You may re-enter the United States only until the date indicated on this form. If you want to remain in the United States past this date, you will need further authorization from USCIS.

If you are a student planning to reenter the United States within 30 days to return to the same school, review the "Instructions to Students" on Page 3 of Form I-94 before surrendering your replacement I-94.

If you lose the right half of your replacement Form I-94 (kept in your passport), submit a copy of the left half of the Form I-94 (that you keep with your personal records) along with a new Form I-102, to apply for a new replacement I-94.

Warning: If you accept employment without our authorization, you may be subject to removal or deportation.

APPROVAL OF NONIMMIGRANT PETITION

If we approved a nonimmigrant petition, it means that the beneficiary is eligible for the requested nonimmigrant classification. If this notice says that we are notifying a U.S. Consulate about the approval for the purpose of issuing a visa, contact the appropriate U.S. Consulate directly if you or the beneficiary has questions about the process. For more information about USCIS processing after a petition is approved, see the instructions on the form you filed.

FORM I-94 ATTACHMENT

You can find your replacement Form I-94 (Arrival/Departure Record) in the lower portion on the front side of this notice. Keep the right half of your replacement Form I-94 with your passport, along with a copy of your original I-94 if you have it. Keep the left half of your replacement Form I-94 in a safe place with your personal records. Submit a copy of your replacement Form I-94 with any future application or petition.

When you leave the United States, you must turn in the right half of your I-94 (kept in your passport) to the officials at the airport, border or seaport. If you do not do so, it may delay your entry into the United States in the future. You may stay in the United States only until the date indicated on this form. If you want to remain in the United States past this date, you will need further authorization from USCIS.

If you are a student planning to reenter the United States within 30 days to return to the same school, review the "Instructions to Students" on Page 3 of Form I-20 before surrendering your replacement I-94.

If you lose the right half of your replacement Form I-94 (kept in your passport), submit a copy of the left half of the Form I-94 (that you keep with your personal records), along with a new Form I-102, to apply for a new replacement I-94.

Warning: If you accept employment without our authorization, you may be subject to removal or deportation.
