What the Official Notice Said

The above petition and accompanying request for a change of status have been approved. The status of the named beneficiary(ies) in this classification is valid as indicated on the I-94 attached below. The beneficiary(ies) can work for the petitioner pursuant to this approval notice, but only as detailed in the petition and during the petition validity period indicated above, unless otherwise authorized by law. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker.

The dates in the I-94 attached below may not be the same as the petition validity dates above because the I-94 below may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before, and up to 10 days after, the petition validity period, for the following classifications: J-1, J-2, H-1B, H-3, L-1, L-2, O-1, O-2, P-1, P-1S, P-2, P-2S, P-3, P-3S, TN-1, and TN-2. An I-94 for H-2A and H-2B nonimmigrants may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before and 30 days after the petition validity period. However, the beneficiary(ies) may not work during such grace periods, unless otherwise authorized by law. The decision to grant a grace period and the length of the granted grace period is discretionary, final, and cannot be contested on motion or appeal. Please contact the USCIS with any questions about this writing.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the beneficiary(ies). The beneficiary(ies) should keep the right part (the I-94 portion) with their other Forms I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection when they leave the United States. The left part is for their records. A person granted a change of status who leaves the U.S. and is not visa-exempt must normally obtain a visa, the new classification, before returning. The left part can be used when applying for a new visa. If a nonimmigrant requires this, they should present it along with all other required documentation when applying for a temporary or nonimmigrant visa or for a change of classification. The petitioner must also file Form I-821, Application for Action on Approved Petition, to request that the USCIS notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this petition does not guarantee that the beneficiary(ies) will be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States (if traveling abroad and seeking re-admission), or for a subsequent extension of stay, change of status, or adjustment of status.

THIS NOTICE IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.
